

WELCOME TO THE 2018/2019 SCHOOL YEAR

IN THIS ISSUE

Character Education and the Evolution from Green to Gold

Welcome back to another school year. Grade 9's, welcome to the building, Grade 12's, enjoy your time here with your classmates, be sure to let these last months of your K-12 experience be the best you have had so far! Last semester the LCI community came together to discuss character, and what it means to be part of the LCI family. Students and staff were asked what characteristics we wanted to focus on, and what was a good slogan that encompasses the changes and stages of being a high school student from the time you enter, to the time you graduate. We came up with Grit, Respect, Empathy, Responsibility and Growth and the slogan: Green 2 Gold. Look for these themes within the school and ask how you can foster them within yourselves as you move from adolescence to adulthood.

LCI's Career Practitioner Overview

Erica Larson erica.larson@lethsd.ab.ca 403-328-9606 ext. 24109

My role within the school is to advise you in the area of career and post-secondary awareness so you can make informed decisions about life after high school. My office is E215 and is located in the Wellness Centre, you can meet with me Monday to Thursday between 7:45 a.m. and 3:30 pm and Fridays from 7:45am – 12:30pm. Work Experience

Students can earn valuable high school credits for the skills developed in part time jobs and volunteer positions. We encourage students to earn the maximum of 30 credits for Work Experience, 15 of which count towards a high school diploma. Work Experience is good to have on a resume and it may be used in the calculation for the Alexander Rutherford Scholarship.

The Registered Apprenticeship Program (RAP) is an opportunity for students to get a head start in a career to pursue full time when they graduate. Students learn to work, make themselves marketable, and apply classroom learning. Up to 40 credits may be earned and students are paid. See www.tradesecrets.gov.ab.ca for a complete description of all 50 plus trades.

Summer Work Experience Hours Due - Sept 28

Hand your summer work experience hours into Jacquie Lowe in the Off-Campus Education office located in room B113

The Green Certificate Program is an industry driven agricultural training program. Its apprenticeship style of delivery ensures that participants learn through actively performing required skills.

This means learning, hands-on, out in the barn, field, greenhouse or corral and getting dirty. It also means having a trainer who is knowledgeable and interested in the trainee's success.

Green Certificate Specializations:

Beekeeping, cow-calf, dairy, equine, feedlot, field crop, irrigated field crop, greenhouse, sheep, swine and poultry.

What's in it for you? 16 Grade 12 (30) level credits! Two course marks that are eligible for Rutherford scholarship. And industry recognized training that is resume worthy. All at no cost to you, the student.

myBlueprint is Here to Stay in School District #51

By Erica Larson

If you have been an ongoing subscriber to my newsletters over the years you will have noticed I promote myBlueprint on a regular basis. Since 2013, LCI has introduced students to the tool in Grade 9 and the expectation was that students and teachers would continue to use this tool through their 10-12 classes.

In reality, this scenario has rarely happened. Fortunately our District is still strongly behind the tool and have taken steps starting this past spring to train Health and CALM teachers across the district in Grades 7-12 on how the tool works and how to utilize it in lesson plans. This forward momentum starting in the younger grades will support our students to make more educated decisions about employment, training and post-secondary decisions that they will make after they leave high school. Future roll out includes introducing myBlueprint to students in Grade 6 and in the near future the "All About Me" platform for students in K-6 will be introduced.

For those who aren't aware of the platform, myBlueprint is a tool that will help you monitor your progress through high school and help you plan for your future. It has many different functions all located in one convenient space.

The importance of self-discovery in grades 7-12 and how to support students with the question "Who Am I?"

Humans have an innate desire to explore their identity through any means available to them. Students, especially in secondary school, often find themselves in a stage of self-searching to understand who they are and what they can do. School is the ideal place for this self-discovery due to the countless learning opportunities available to students in and outside of the classroom. Through course exploration, interactions with teachers, and socializing with their peers, students explore a whole lot about themselves - interests, motivators, competencies, learning style, and more. The more students understand about themselves, the better equipped they are to seek out opportunities that are best suited to them. For this reason, self-discovery forms the foundation for post-secondary planning, job searching, and identifying volunteer opportunities.

Some stats and information for you:

- In Alberta only 40% of students who enter Grade 10 transition to post-secondary education after leaving high school
- 70% of new jobs will require some level of post-secondary education
- Students are choosing post-secondary studies that leave them unemployed or underemployed
- Contributing factors to youth unemployment, a mismatch in skills and graduates having to work part-time jobs because their chosen industry is over-saturated
- Average undergraduate tuition for full time students per year across Canada $6,838
 - when you add in fees and living expenses the total cost could range from $11,000 - $16,000 per year
- Average amount of student debt after graduation $28,000
- The cost of a Bachelor's Degree today is 20% higher than it was in the late 2000's
