Smudging

Monday's during break
10:24 – 10:38 am

What is Smudging?

"Smudge" is the burning of sweet grass, sage or cedar. Smudging is an Indigenous traditional practice, accompanying prayer. Smudging may be conducted by all Indigenous individuals for whom this is a regular practice. Smudging yields a mild to moderate amount of smoke for a short period of time. Smudging is a common practice among some Indigenous/ F.N.M.I. people.
