Inside the circle, the text reads "CAREER EXPLORATION SESSION" at the top, "FOREST OFFICER" in large blue letters in the center, and "NOVEMBER 29, 2023 4:00pm" at the bottom. To the right of the circle is a photograph of a sunlit forest. The Career Transitions logo is in the top right corner. Below the circle, there are three smaller logos and a QR code. The text on the right side of the poster asks if the viewer prefers an office setting, is in good physical condition, and has an interest in forestry, wildfire operations, wildlife biology, environmental studies, or stewardship. It also asks if they can adapt to changing priorities. If so, it suggests Forest Officer might be the career for them. It invites Trevor Nichols from the Alberta Forest Ranger program to answer questions. A registration link is provided at the bottom right.
