STUDENTS TO RETURN TEXTBOOKS

We greatly appreciate your help to ensure textbooks novel studies from semester one are returned. We rely on these books for the next group of students and therefore it is essential they are returned to the learning commons. This helps us maintain the availability of resources for all students and ensure we can continue to provide quality materials for learning.

FINES FOR UNRETURNED TEXTBOOKS CAN BE FOUND ON SCHOOL CASH ONLINE

Black History Month Events

Tuesday, February 11th – Virtual Presentation by Cheryl Foggo

- We are honored to welcome Cheryl Foggo, an award-winning Canadian writer, filmmaker, and playwright, for a special virtual presentation. Cheryl's work highlights Alberta's Black pioneers and their contributions to Canadian history.

Wednesday, February 12th – Cultural Tasting (3:00–5:30 PM, LLT)

- We invite LCI families to showcase their cultures through a potluck-style event! This is a wonderful opportunity to share and experience cultural dishes. If your family would like to participate by bringing a dish, please message Ms. Swanberg on Teams.

Thursday, February 13th – Film Viewing: Queen of Katwe (3:00–5:30 PM, LLT)

- Join us for a screening of Queen of Katwe, an inspiring true story about a young Ugandan girl whose life changes when she discovers chess. Popcorn will be provided!

Tuesday, February 25th – Film Viewing: We Are the Roots (3:00–4:30 PM, LLT)

- We invite students, their families, and staff to a screening of We Are the Roots, a powerful documentary about Black settlement in Alberta. Popcorn will be provided!
