

Award Name:	Award Information:	Recipient Name:
LCI Choral Legacy Awards		Mya Burrows, Nevaeh Christie, Coban DeJager, Cassie Doerksen, Madeline Drummond, Bailey Goth, Marlow Hendry
Student Legacy Awards - Choir		Paige Hill, Mary Hornberger, Anna Johnson, Molly Johnsrude, Emry Slawson, Maguire Williams, Abby Woodruff
Kaleb Dumontier Most Improved Player	This award is awarded to the Most Improved Player of the year. This player was able to translate feedback into best practices and has seen major growth in their development.	Gabe Gorner & Lucas Palmer
Student Legacy (Drama)		Cassie Doerksen, Oliver Helm
Music & Burns Bridge eSports Award	This award is awarded to the Most Dedicated and Hardest Worker of the year. This player goes above and beyond to ensure the success of the team and program.	Isaac Gill & Kaden Shaw
LCI Dance Academy Award for Most Improved Dance	Awarded to the dance student who has shown the most improvement in their time in the academy.	Hudson Prebushewski & Emma Santa
Nagahama & Thai Esports Award	This is a teamwork and leadership award - The "glue" of the team. This award is awarded to the player that best demonstrated teamwork, leadership and communication skills.	Clayton Barfuss & Agrim Paudel
Lisa Doolittle Achievement in Dance Award	awarded to a graduating student who has demonstrated outstanding achievement in curricular and co-curricular dance	Duncan Jacobs & Ella Richards
LCI Grade 12 Choreography Award/Most Outstanding Choreography Dance Award	Awarded to a graduating student who has demonstrated promising choreography in dance	Gracie McCready & Meghan McCready
Gerry and Brian Stewart Award	Gerry and Brian Stewart Cross Country Memorial Award is presented to the student with characteristics of hard work, dedication, commitment to Cross Country.	Sara Kozub

Betty Poulson Dance Award	Awarded to graduating students who have shown the most dedication in dance	Berkley Manser & Graeme Strong
Brock Ramias Citizen Athlete Scholarship	Brock Ramias Citizen Athlete Scholarship is awarded to the LCI student that most represents the heart, kindness, commitment, and determination to influence those around them in a positive way and an undying passion for “their game”. The recipient should be humble, genuine, embrace a love of life and fun. They must understand the importance of relationships, not only with close friends and families, but also with all individuals. This person must selflessly go the extra mile to help others in times of need and practice random acts of kindness. They must demonstrate a strong work ethic regardless of the challenges they face.	Owen Parker
Koji Nagahama Leadership Award	Awarded to a graduating student who has shown excellent leadership qualities in dance	Avery Mackenzie
Grade 9 Female Athlete of the Year	Grade 9 Female Athlete of the Year	Amaya Vera
Hailey Van Rijn Dance Award	Awarded to a dance student with the most outstanding performance	Jessica Hudson & Kian Poscente
Grade 9 Male Athlete of the Year	Grade 9 Male Athlete of the Year	Reggie Wood
Louis Armstrong Jazz Award	awarded to a student (grade 10-12) demonstrating exceptional dedication and ability in instrumental music (Concert/Jazz) Award is chosen by the band teacher. Sponsored by the Bandstand.	Ben Weiss
Grade 10 Female Athlete of the Year	Grade 10 Female Athlete of the Year	Emma Martineau-Henry
Dr. Walter Gray Band Award	Dr. Gray was a big supporter of LCI, Lethbridge Symphony and Kiwanis Music Festival. This award will be awarded to a student (grade 10-12) demonstrating exceptional dedication and ability in Band. The award is chosen by the band teacher	Oliver Helm
Grade 10 Male Athlete of the Year	Grade 10 Male Athlete of the Year	Owen Parker

John Phillip Sousa Band Award	The John Philip Sousa Award honors a student who demonstrates exceptional musicianship, steadfast dedication, and exemplary leadership within the band program. As the pinnacle award for high school band, it reflects the legacy of John Philip Sousa by recognizing those who inspire excellence and contribute meaningfully to the spirit and success of the ensemble.	Max Taylor
Grade 11 Female Athlete of the Year	Grade 11 Female Athlete of the Year	Shayla Thomas
Long and McQuade Choral	Awarded to a graduating student who has demonstrated outstanding knowledge and skill in Choir	Andrew Sherwood
Grade 11 Male Athlete of the Year	Grade 11 Male Athlete of the Year	Luke Low
Music Scholarship	awarded to a graduating student who is planning to pursue post-secondary education in Music	Akeo Ichikawa
Kyle Leavitt Music Award	awarded to a graduating music student in both Band and Choir Award is chosen by the band and choir teacher.	Niamh Beilby
Grade 12 Female Athlete of the Year	Grade 12 Female Athlete of the Year	Madison Kutsch
Jax McKnight-Hogan Memorial Award	This award honors an outstanding student who embodies the qualities and characteristics exemplified by Jax McKnight-Hogan. The recipient passionately embraces all types of music, immersing themselves in various genres like jazz, classical, rock, and punk. They demonstrate an ongoing work ethic to refine their skills and talent. This person also is committed to sharing their musical passion with others through performance and providing mentorship to fellow students on their musical paths. And like Jax, this person may also embrace characteristics of anarchy.	Evan Paskevich
Grade 12 Male Athlete of the Year	Grade 12 Male Athlete of the Year	Avery Mackenzie
Gerry and Brian Stewart	This award is presented to the student with characteristics of hard work, dedication, commitment to Academics and Fine Arts (specifically Chamber Choir), and service to community and/or school. Gerry and Brian were lost in June 2003 while pursuing their dreams, having reached both peaks of the Russian Mt. Elbrus, the highest mountain in Europe. The award was established through the Lethbridge Community Foundation by family and friends of Gerry and Brian.	Niamh Beilby

Competitor's Courage Award	This award is given to a male or female athlete who has faced adversity and demonstrates a heart of champion.	Cameron Boehme
Brendon McQuaid Fine Arts Award	The student should be a good representation of empathy, respect and kindness. Brendon graduated from LCI a good student who was a strong participant in the arts as well as athletics and was always kind and respectful to both his peers and his teachers – he went on to finish his nursing degree where his empathic characteristic was perceived as being second-to-none. Brendon would be proud to pass on his legacy to someone of the same nature.	Nevaeh Christie
Green 2 Gold Award- Female	An award earned by an LCI student who has displayed a combination of Growth, Grit, Respect, Responsibility, and Empathy throughout their time at LCI. The five characteristics must be present through academics and athletics.	Sarah Broad
Green 2 Gold Award- Male	An award earned by an LCI student who has displayed a combination of Growth, Grit, Respect, Responsibility, and Empathy throughout their time at LCI. The five characteristics must be present through academics and athletics.	Jayce Hyggen
Technical Theatre Award	Awarded to a Graduating Student with an aptitude in the technical aspects of theatre	Jenna Arlett
Josh Wilson Drama Award	Josh Wilson was a Drama student at L.C.I. whose life was cut short by cancer. Some people however don't need a long life to make an impact and Josh was one of those individuals. He led us all by example. Josh demonstrated the power of humour and courage in the face of terror and darkness. He was a light and his life enriched all who knew him. The purpose of Josh's scholarship is to remind us all of the strength that we can produce if we look for something positive each and every day. Josh demonstrated that courage is in the small details of day to day living.	Emry Slawson
Pat Adams Memorial Scholarship- Female	Pat Adams exemplified the all around student during his time at LCI. He was involved with the fine arts, sports and was the class president in gr. 12. This scholarship is given to a gr. 12 female and/or male student who has performed well in the areas of fine arts and/or athletics. This student exemplifies leadership and volunteerism in the LCI community.	Niamh Beilby
Pat Adams Memorial Scholarship- Male	Pat Adams exemplified the all around student during his time at LCI. He was involved with the fine arts, sports and was the class president in gr. 12. This scholarship is given to a gr. 12 female and/or male student who has performed well in the areas of fine arts and/or athletics. This student exemplifies leadership and volunteerism in the LCI community.	Coban DeJager

D.R. Yates Fine Arts Award	Students who have excelled in one or more of the fine arts are recognized for their achievements through these awards which come from a trust fund established by the Yates family, whose name is also borne by the Genevieve E. Yates Memorial Centre, which has long been the center for arts in Lethbridge. Students are awarded the D.R. Yates Fine Arts Awards for their Achievements in the areas of drama, art, dance, choral music and instrumental music.	Mary Hornberger
Marge M.J. Clark Award	This is awarded to the top female athlete at LCI. This is decided by the athletic council with the input given by the coaches.	Mishynn Miller
Barbara Walker Fine Arts	This award is presented to the student who displays outstanding achievement in two or more areas of Fine Arts at LCI. This recognition is intended to reflect an exceptional level of achievement in areas of performance, dedication to the Arts, and responsibility to the group, while maintaining a respectable academic record. Truly, this award will recognize exceptional students.	Oliver Helm
Jim Whitelaw Award	This is awarded to the top male athlete at LCI. This is decided by the athletic council with the input given by the coaches.	Nathan Morris